THE 1948 SPUD ANNUAL

Published by the Idaho Falls High School

FOREWORD

No one knows what tomorrow will bring! The Senior Class of 1948 goes into the unknown, leaving its successors to uphold the traditions and ideas of I. F. H. S.

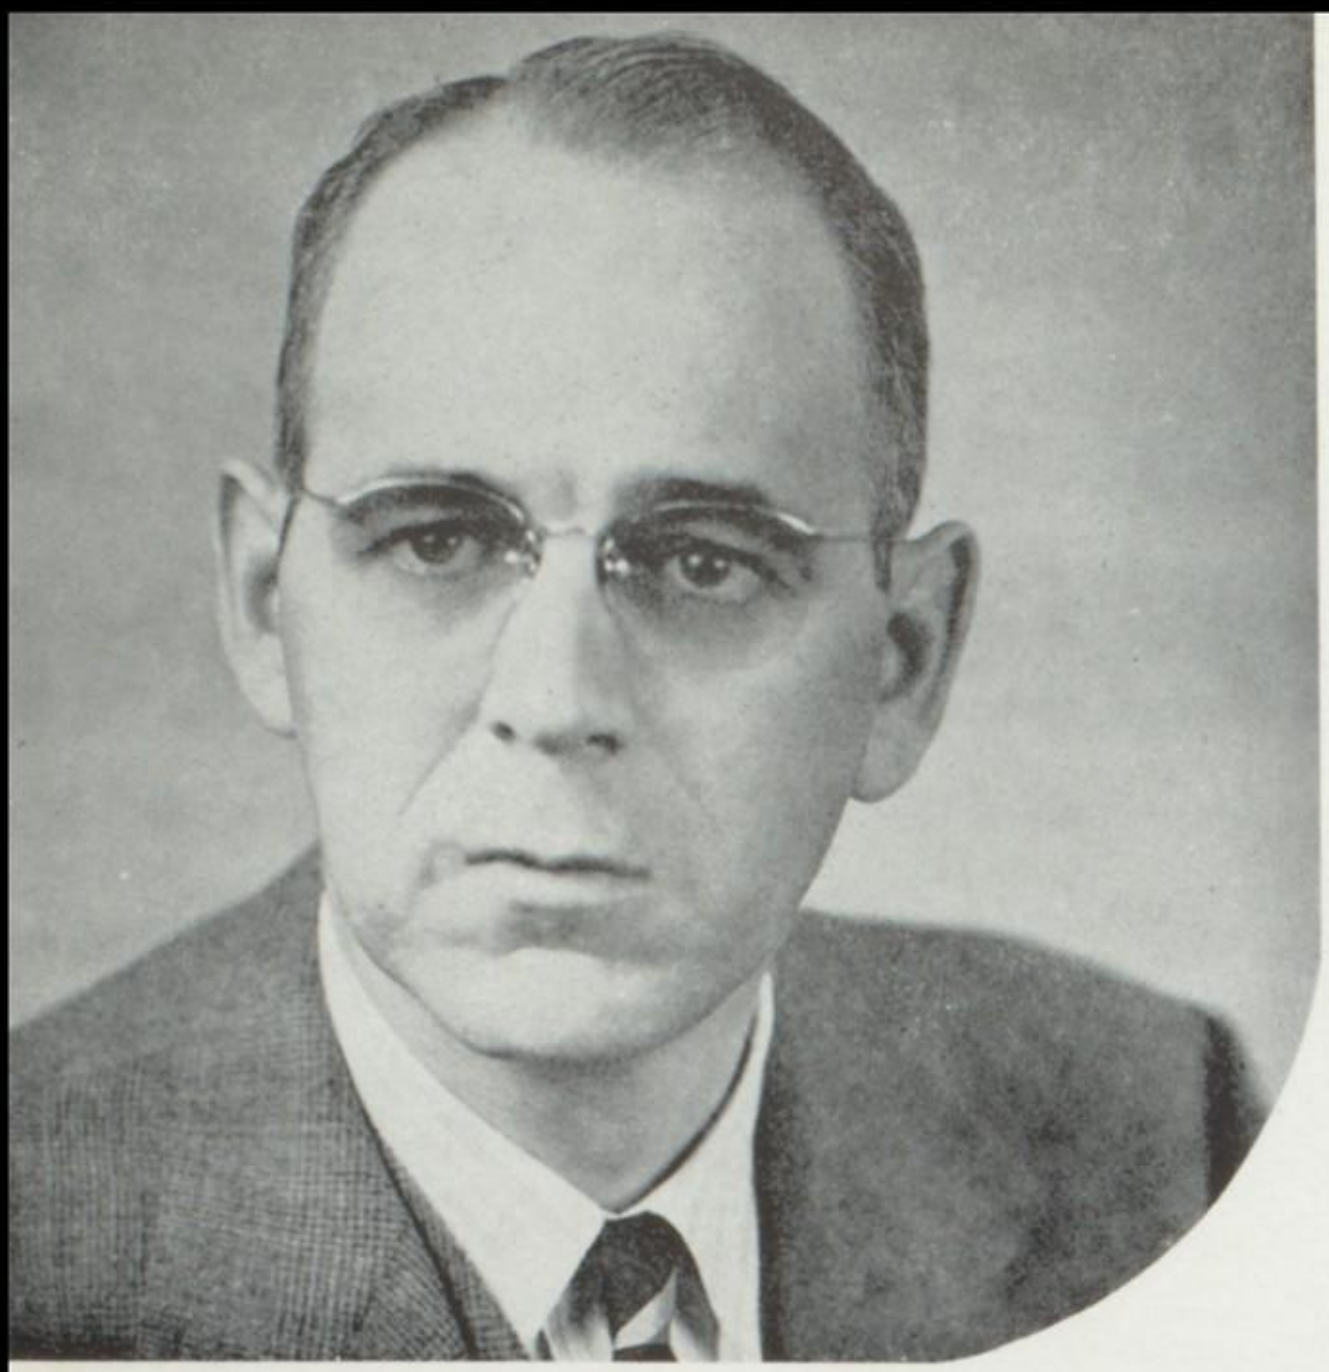
DEDICATION

As we pass to and fro marking time as it slips away, days into months, months into years, and years into a lifetime, you, our parents, have left your imprint on every phase of our lives. You have cared for us, have been glad with us, and have had faith in our dreams and possibilities. You have given us our town, our schools, our Churches, and our homes.

In appreciation for all these opportunities offered we dedicate this 1948 SPUD ANNUAL to you, our Moms and Dads!

A bird's eye view of old I. F. High

Administration



PRINCIPAL

This is the fourth year the duties of Principal of the Idaho Falls High School have been fulfilled by Mr. Gale. He has introduced an exceptional plan of student government which has been successfully carried out by the student body, under Mr. Gale. He has become an intimate and helpful friend of every student in school. Keep up the good work Mr. Gale!

Clair Gale

TO THE GRADUATES

Congratulations to the class of 1948 and farewell. Your high school record is a good one. Your senior year has been an interesting one to observe. My personal opinion is that you are showing more interest in what you may become rather than what you are going to do. This is a healthy sign. We need more character in our citizens to help shoulder cares of a troubled nation and world.

Soon your glorious high school days will be over. This Spud Annual, five, ten, twenty years from now will bring back priceless memories of happy associations with fellow students and faculty. Cherish those memories, best of luck and come back and see us anytime.

Sincerely,

Clair Gale

MISS LOUISE KERR

SECRETARY

SUPERINTENDENT

Mr. Christensen has served the city schools as superintendent for the past 14 years. During that time he has made many improvements in our school system and has done much to promote the standing of the Idaho Falls schools in the eyes of the state.

Mr. Christensen

MRS. ST. CLAIR
SECRETARY

STEADFAST FORTY-EIGHT

The Class of Forty-Eight came into being in war-torn 1943. Some of us feared you might be handicapped by the turmoil of that period.

Such was not the case. You adjusted to the loss of many valuable teachers and to the interruptions in school terms. You resisted the temptation to seek immediate gain rather than the distant goal.

Now you come to the reward of steadfastness. But we feel that all of your reward is not in credits earned nor diplomas won. You have, too, that inner strength that will always help you to see beyond distant horizons.

Congratulations Forty-Eight. We know you will keep on carrying on!

W. W. Christenson

ATTENDANCE CLERK

Eighteen years have passed since our own "Mom" began issuing admit slips. Since then more students have come to know her than probably any other faculty member. All those years "Mom" has helped distressed students out of difficulties, given lectures for sluffing, listened to troubles, and attended to all the other needs of her high school students.

"Mom" has come to be a difinite part of dear old I. F. High.

It has been an honor and a pleasure to be Student Body President of our high school. I shall never forget it.

Your cooperation, so freely given, has made this year a successful and a memorable one for all of us.

I hope that someday in later life—when you thumb through this annual and its pages bring all the good times, the games, the dances, the classes, and the assemblies we've had—that you'll say, "It certainly was fun. I wish we could do it again."

Sincerely,

Gordon Dick

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

Senior! That position long awaited by the "Thumb-thuckers of Forty-Thix." The officers elected that year were Ray Tate, president; Gordon Dick, vice-president; and Pat Mason, secretary. Redhead Bob Tobin was elected class yell leader.

Among other sophmore celebrities were John Schley, attendant to the Football Queen high school night, and Jone Poulson, attendant to the Harvest Queen.

The juniors of '47 began the school year by electing Gordon Dick, president; and Joan Schley, secretary. Corrine Hawkley was elected cheer leader.

That year, Lois Herd was elected as candidate for Football Queen.

One of the big attractions on the school calendar was "January Thaw"—the junior play presented to large audiences December 9 and 10.

Highlighting a successful year, the Junior Prom was presented April 11. A large crowd attended. The theme was "In the Still of the Night."

When election time rolled around campaingnig was fast and furious. The victorious candidates for student body officers were Gordon Dick, president; Ray Tate, vice-president; Lois Herd, secretary; Aldin Porter, head monitor; Joan Schley, cheer queen, who took their new offices this year.

As mighty Seniors, the Class of '48 met for the last election of officers. Those chosen were Harvey Strand, president; Dean Strand, vice-president, Jeanette Johnson, secretary, and Jo Ann Greenwalt, class historian.

The really big event of the year was the Annual Senior Ball. This gala affair was held December 23. The theme was "Christmas Dreaming."

The Senior Assembly was characterized by tears and sad smiles denoting the end of happy high school days for seniors. Under their leadership, school life was enriched by new and original ideas like the Armistice Day Parade and the All School Mixer. Life in dear old I.F.H.S. was kind to the seniors and many cherished memories took place in her halls.

So now, the Graduating Class of 1948 takes one lingering glance back before going out and taking its place among others in the world!

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

In the year of 1946-47, the sophmore class was christened "Silent Soakers" by seniors. They began their high school days by electing Aldin Porter, president; Eleanor Ricks, vice president; Paula Stanger, secretary; and Orvil Haroldson, class historian. Bruce Flora was elected cheer leader by his fellow classmates.

Betha Decker was in charge of the skit given high school night by the sophomores. Barbara Sawyer was chosen attendant to the Football Queen.

Blonde Martine Harris was candidate for Harvest Queen.

"Sweetheart of All My Dreams" was depicted as the theme for the Sophomore Hop held February 14.

The great success of the class that year was the annual sophomore assembly entitled "The Old and the New". Margaret Sutton was in charge.

As juniors, Richard Corey, president; Kay Williams, vice-president; Elaine Heaton, secretary; and Glenna May Perrin, class historian, were elected to offices. Yell leader for the year was Paula Stanger.

A graveyard was the setting for the junior skit enacted high school night. Martine Harris was junior candidate for Football Queen.

At the Armistice Day Game, Richard Corey, president, proudly accepted a trophy awarded to the junior class for their float in the Armistice Day Parade.

A great accomplishment this year was the presenting of "Arsenic and Old Lace" --the junior play. Large audiences attended the excellent performance.

The Junior Prom and assembly were both very successful events.

Eagerly, the juniors await their turn for the honor and esteem of being seniors!

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

The Seniors of 1950, sophomores of today, were presented on the first assembly of the year and were introduced as the "Wittle Waddle Wiggwers."

Tebbin Johnson, President; Pearl Wiseman, Vice-President; Eleanore Allen, Secretary; and Marlene Andrus, treasurer, were the officers elected to lead their class. Ronnie Smith was elected cheer leader.

The sophomores gave a skit high school night in the traditional manner. The annual sophomore assembly was presented later in the year.

Pearl Wiseman was sophomore candidate for Football Queen while Bobette Buehler represented the class as candidate for Harvest Queen.

The big event of the year was the successful Sophomore Hop.

Having withstood the trials of being sophomores the "Wittle Waddle Wiggwers" will be seen around I. F. H. S. next year as outstanding Juniors!

Dear Jeanne, We sure had "a" good time in Beaver. Sure hope we can be together more next year. Good luck to the Beaver "known" Junior "Jewel" in her future acting!! Best of luck to a girl who does - not me

The highlight of the evening took place during intermission at which time Sherry Bills was crowned Princess of the Sea, and her escort, Denny Croft, was crowned King Neptune. Clever decorations added to the dance held January 27, in the gym.

Dear Jeanne,
You are a great pixie with a wonderful personality. You have a lot of talent in dramatics, And I hope that you keep it with it. I hope to see you in some Classics not too far, And I hope I will see you next summer.
Good luck to a swell kind,
sincerely
Alan B. Wilkie

My Dear Jeanne,

There are few people like you in this world. We all live and breath and walk and finally die. The record we make now will follow us through the rest of our life and then who knows. Pretty is as pretty does and a clean & polished interior shows through despite all the crudeness in the world. "All that you do, do with your might; things done by halves are never done right." Set your goal whether you know you have already set your goal whether you realize it or not. You have boarded the train that will take you the the farthest points of success and happiness, and by realizing that there is a power, stronger even than the Atom Bomb, which can save mankind, you will always be among the highest in purity, goodness, and plain old genuineness. The best of luck to you, Jeanne, in traveling the road of life.

Love,

Richard L. Marshall.
